

EAGLES EDITION

Principal's Message

Robin Yeargain

Dear EDUPRIZE Parents,

Thank you for attending our annual curriculum nights this week. The main objective was to provide you with a better understanding of what is happening in the school and your child's classroom. Ms. Vehon and I enjoyed being able to talk with you first, making sure to outline the procedures and expectations that are common to all the grade levels before you headed to the classroom for grade-specific information. I hope you walked away knowing what your child will be learning in all areas of curriculum, rules, and procedures of the class, special programs, and parent communications. If you have questions, please get in touch with your child's teacher for a more in-depth discussion. Teachers can be reached by email or phone and will strive to contact you within 24 hours. If you were unable to make it to the meeting, your child's teacher will be happy to send the PowerPoint presentation to you.

Some topics we addressed were:

- Our school theme of Go For The Gold!
- Handbook policies: code of conduct, dress code, and cell phones
- Before and after school
- Infinite Campus: get the app for immediate information on your child (grades, fees, contacts, beginning of the year forms)
- Gifted Program
- Sports Program
- PTN...a new board and a new vision for the year
- Again, thank you for your support at Curriculum Night.

Have a wonderful weekend!

Kindly,
Robin

SEL CORNER

(SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL LEARNING)

Dear EDUPRIZE families,

Winning can be an exhilarating feeling and I think most people (including kids) would say they'd prefer to win than lose at something. But some kids can REALLY struggle to deal with their feelings of disappointment when they've experienced a real (or perceived) failure. There are some excellent books that you can read with your child that help them learn lessons - like how to just enjoy an activity whether you win or lose. Mrs. Nina read the book pictured below (I Really Want to Win) to help her gifted students learn these important life lessons. Check it out here if you are interested!
